

Contents of final report – draft detailed outline.

December 19th, 2013.

(The numbers of pages are without illustrations. Illustrations may add around 33 % more pages. One page corresponds to one A 4 page, Times New Roman 12 p., 2 cm margins.)

General introduction.	8 p.
Aim and research questions. (Bo Larsson)	2 p.
Four cities in the central-east European borderland – an introduction. (Bo Larsson)	6 p.
- Historical background, national pasts and transnational contexts.	1,5 p.
- Urban cultural and environmental environment in the 1930s	1,5 p.
- World War II and its aftermath.	1,5 p.
- Communist and post-communist years.	1,5 p.
Theoretical and methodological introduction.	15 p.
Cultural/collective memories as a conceptual pivot of the project. (Eleonora Narvselius)	5 p.
Ethnic diversity and memory (Niklas Bernsand)	5 p.
City environment as reflection of history and memories (Bo Larsson)	5 p.
Urban environment in context of history and memories.	50 p.
Introduction (Bo Larsson)	2 p.
Personal memories of the four cities from the 1930s and 1940s. (Bo Larsson)	6 p.
- Chişinău.	1 p.
- Černivci.	2 p.
- L'viv.	1,5 p.
- Wrocław.	0,5 p.
- Summary and comparison.	1 p.
Chişinău (Anatolie Gordeev)	9 p.
Černivci (Julia Lienemeyer, Bo Larsson)	9 p.
L'viv (Bo Larsson)	10 p.
Wrocław (Elzbieta Przesmycka)	8 p.
Comparing conclusions: Traces of interwar urban culture and vanished population groups in the urban environment (Bo Larsson)	6 p.
- The object of the remembrance: Inter-war urban environments and culture.	1,5 p.

- The radical change: World War II, Holocaust, forced migration and war destruction. 1,5 p.
- The traces of former inhabitants and culture in today's urban environment, with special attention to the Jewish memories. 2 p.

Urban planning in relation to memory treatment. 50 p.

- Introduction (Bo Larsson) 3 p.
- Urban planning ideologies in relation to preservation interests. 1,5 p.
 - Different ideologies and strategies concerning preservation policy. 1,5 p.

Chişinău (Anatolie Gordeev) 10 p.

Černivci (Julie Lienemeyer, Bo Larsson) 10 p.

L'viv (Bo Larsson) 10 p.

Wrocław (Elzbieta Przesmycka) 10 p.

- Comparing conclusions (Bo Larsson) 7 p.
- Early Soviet and Polish communist urban planning. 1,5 p.
 - Later, modernist Soviet and Polish urban planning. 1,5 p.
 - Preservation policies in relation to multi-ethnic cultural heritage. 1 p.
 - Present discussions of heritage and urban planning. 1 p.
 - Vanished population groups in official city presentations. 1 p.
 - Perspectives for future urban planning and preservation policies. 1 p.

Local memories, popular knowledge and everyday opinions concerning heritage of vanished population groups in the built environment. 43 p.

- Introduction (Eleonora Narvselius, Niklas Bernsand) 10 p.
- Survey among students. 2 p.
 - Survey among a population sample. 2 p.
 - In-depth interviews in chosen streets and districts. 2 p.
 - Chişinău and Černivci studies 4 p.

L'viv and Wrocław (Barbara Pabjan, Paweł Czajkowski) 30 p.

- Comparing conclusions concerning knowledge and opinions (Barbara Pabjan, Paweł Czajkowski) 3 p.
- The vanished population groups. 1 p.
 - The multi-ethnic cultural built heritage of the city. 0,5 p.
 - Traces of vanished population groups, reflected in the urban environment. 0,5 p.
 - History of local buildings and streets. 0,5 p.
 - Preservation of built heritage. 0,5 p.

Expert narratives, practices and attitudes relating to the traces of the vanished population groups in the urban environments. 70 s.

Introduction (Eleonora Narvselius, Niklas Bernsand) 5 p.

Chişinău (Nicolae Misail, Anastasia Flecher) 15 p.

Černivci (Niklas Bernsand) 15 p.

L'viv (Eleonora Narvselius) 15 p.

Wrocław (Marcelina Zuber) 15 p.

Comparing conclusions (Ella Narvselius, Niklas Bernsand, Bo Larsson) 5 s.

- Urban environment and the built heritage as reflection of the vanished population groups. 2 p.

- Urban planning in relation to the built heritage of vanished population groups. 2 p.

- Attitudes to the built heritage. future perspectives. 1 p.

Main findings (Bo Larsson, Eleonora Narvselius, Niklas Bernsand) 6 p.

Future perspectives. 8 p.

Memory treatment and urban planning – problems and possible strategies. (Bo Larsson) 4 p.

Ideas for future research (Bo Larsson, Eleonora Nervselius, Niklas Bernsand) 4 p.

Summary (Bo Larsson) 4 p.

References 10 s.

Index 10 s.

Appendices

(Separate volume/s/).

(Footnotes are included in the text passages.)

Totalt omfång (exkl. Illustrationer och appendix):

Text 254 s. + försättsblad, references & Index 25 s. = 279 s.

Tillägg ca 33 % för bilder: Totalt ca 370 s.